

Back to Avalon

Kenny Loggins

A vision,
A flash of light
A gift we were given
Within each others dreams
We lived in the gardens of Avalon

Together
Believed that we could live there forever
Then it faded away
Forgetting we wondered to far from the land we'd known

Of all the lonely people
You're among the lucky few
If it comes even once in a life
Love is a lesson hard to learn
It's never as easy to return
But if you're willing to go on
You'll find the way back to Avalon... (Avalon)

They had it
It wasn't far away or imagined
He held her in his arms
And we planned it all
The towers of Avalon

They warned him
He only turned around for a moment
And everything had changed
He noticed the sun on her face as she looked away

All the lonely people
You're among the lucky few
If it comes even once in a life
And love is a lesson hard to learn
It's never as easy to return
But if you're willing to go on
You'll find a way back to Avalon

And when you come know the miracle it's mystical
And someone else's heart is in your hands
I learned to late now I must try and find a way back home

Here is a lesson hard to learn
It's never as easy to return
But if you're willing to go on
You'll find a way back to Avalon... (Avalon)

We've gotta go back
Someday we'll get back
(Avalon)
We gotta get it back
(Avalon)
We gotta get it back
(Avalon)
Somebody tell me a way
(Avalon)

Ohhhhhh.... Avalon
We've got to go back
