

Isabella's Eyes

Kenny Loggins

Somewhere out in space
A moonlit face was watching
Lookin' to find a time to become.
Slowly two lovers lay hypnotized
Holding the moment in their eyes.
World in changes.
Lightly one by one,
We try to hide the mirrors.
But baby they just keep turnin' up
And I know you can't look away from you
When you're lookin' in into

Isabella's eyes
Shine your light and make your mama smile.
All our angels come
To welcome the awakening one
Awakening wonder

Once I met a man who knew where he was goin'
And let everybody tag along.
But suddenly love had another plan.
Shook him and took him by the hand.
World in changes.
'N' there's a boy I know
Believes that he's in danger
He'll never give up without a fight.
If you open your heart
There's no way to lose
So just surrender to

Millions of dreams are part of the plan,
But you are the one dream that's real.
This changes everything
Now that I am
In the spell of Isabella's eyes.
