

Nobody's Fool

Kenny Loggins

I know you think, I'm no match for you baby
You like making it rough on me, don' you? My my Back to the shadows, ah, ah, yeah
Nothing suits me better than that

In time to start the healing
Got to learn to be the ball
And I can't keep from laughing at it all
Whoa whoa, I'm going now

I'm going all the way
Sooner or later, gotta love somebody
I don't care how long it takes
Like a shot to the heart, I've got news for you
I may not look so smart, but I'm nobody's fool

Oh no, lassoing love for you baby
Taking it slow, it's too much for me to analyze
Still alright, heading into the rhythm
Of the southern light

Winds of wild insanity
Blow with me tonight
Shouting love to all you cowboys, alright
Whoa whoa, I'm going now

I'm going all the way
Sooner or later, gotta love somebody
I don't care how long it takes
You can turn up the heat, but I'm playing it cool
I know it's hard to believe, but I ain't nobody's fool

I'm going all the way
Sooner or later, gotta love somebody
I don't care how long it takes
You might think that I've not gone to school on you
Baby like it or not, I ain't nobody's fool

My illusion nation become a sound surprise
You may turn to deny it
To the place when the clouds stops the wind in the face
Leaves you dumbfounded there in his waste

I'm going all the way
Sooner or later, gotta love somebody
I don't care how long it takes
Like a shot to the heart, I've got news for you
Maybe I'm not so smart, but I'm nobody's fool

I'm going all the way
I'm going all the way
Nobody's fool baby, nobody's fool
I don't care how long it takes
I don't care listen to the right
I'm going all the way
Who's fooling who?
