

He Will, She Knows

Kenny Rogers

A two room house on an acre lot
It ain't much, but it's all they got
Boy, sometimes it sure seems a lot
To keep up on her own
Pile of bills, a load of clothes
Wipin' tears from a two year old
Makin' sure supper's on before he makes it home.

In her mind she hears him say
I'm gonna make it better someday
He will, she knows
He's going to build their dreams
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
Even if the whole world says he won't
He will.

He spends all day underneath the hood
Makin' Chevrolets run like they should
He don't like it much, but the pay is good
And that's enough to make him stay
He's workin' lots of overtime
'Cause he's got a little plan in mind
For a hill off Highway 109
That he drives by everyday
Sometimes money's hard to save
But if anyone can find a way.

He will, she knows
He's going to build their dreams
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
Even if the whole world says he won't
He will, she knows.

And every night he holds her close and she believes
If anyone can make it more than just a dream
He will, she knows.

He's going to build their dream
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
Oh, it shows
Even if the whole world says he won't
He will, oh he will
He will
Yes, he will
She knows...
