

The Only Way I Know

Kenny Rogers

In a world where love is found and lost so easily
I'm so thankful I share my life with you
All around you hear the sound of faithless poetry
Oh, I won't lie, that's something I won't do.

There must be a million words to whisper soft and low
There must be a million ways I could let this feeling show
But loving you with all my heart and never letting go
That's the only way, the only way I know.

Maybe I will never say everything I feel
Even so, you'll always know the truth
In the silence of a touch every word is real
As long as I live, that's what I'll give to you.

There must be a million words to whisper soft and low
There must be a million ways I could let this feeling show
But loving you with all my heart and never letting go
That's the only way, the only way I know.

That's the only way, the only way I know...
