

Until Forever's Gone

Kenny Rogers

Sometimes I wonder if you know
Just how deep my feelings go
I'm not sure I tell you enough
How lost I'd be without your love.

I often hurry through the day
Never stopping long enough to say
How much you really mean to me
So I'll tell you with no uncertainty.

With all my heart, with all my soul
I will love you 'til the winds don't blow
Until the oceans turn to stone
I am yours and yours alone
My love is forever until forever's gone.

Please, forgive me if sometimes
Life comes between your heart and mine
When it appears I've shut you out
Remember this, you're all that really counts.

With all my heart, with all my soul
I will love you 'til the winds don't blow
Until the oceans turn to stone
I am yours and yours alone
My love is forever until forever's gone.

Sometimes I let this old world
Get in my way, when I do,
The thought of you gets me through the day.

With all my heart, with all my soul
I will love you 'til the winds don't blow
Until the oceans turn to stone
I am yours and yours alone
My love is forever until forever's gone...
