Last Goodbye

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

(Who who who yeah!) Long before your rusted chains Busted walls and barbed wire cage Tried to hold me down Time was just a fist of change Tossed in the water just incase, you ever came around I could lose myself I could curse like hell But I If you ever doubt Listen to the sound No lies no no no This is my last goodbye Now pardon me if I appear To see beyond the now and here To try to save myself Ι But I can Livin I could lose myself I could curse like hell But I If you ever doubt Listen to the sound No lies, no no no This is my last goodbye Door closes another one opens I feel the cold wind blowing Over me Hey Long gone but not forgotten I might be lost, I might be finally free Т Long before your rusted chains Busted walls and barbed wire cage Tried to hold me down Time was just a fist of change Tossed in the water just in case, you ever came around I could lose myself I could curse like hell But I If you ever doubt listen to the sound No lies, no no no This is my last goodbye
