

Palace Of The King

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

I was born up in Dallas, raised up in the city of the Win
Gonna spend another Sunday talking bout the places where I've been

Baby Blues tonight, on a pillow with the queen
She lifted up my style, but the queen is not my play
Going back to Dallas, back to the palace of the king

Ain't wanna be in Russia, but Moscow was much too cold
Could have played out in Denver, but the girls were much too old

Every tell you something funny, I don't notice what they say
I can't find a chilly pizza for any price I pay
Going back to Dallas, back to the palace of the king
Yes, I'm living in the palace of the king
Living in the palace
I've never had, all is quite the same here

I can make you smile
With every role I play
If I can make you happy
Hate to lose my way
Going back to Dallas, back to the palace of the king
Living in the palace of the king...
