

Save us,
Save us from our secrets,
Save us from ourselves,
Save us from our sins and sorrow,
Teach us,
Teach us to be patient,
While we kneel and pray,
Pray like there is no tomorrow,
Save us,
Save us from our cravings,
Save us from the lies they sell,
Time will tell.
Lead us,
Lead us through the valley,
Of gluttony and pride.
So now that you know where it comes from,
Now you know where it goes,
Now you know why it holds you back,
Till you reap, what you sow,
Now you know where I'm going,
Will you bargain your soul?
Cause you know it will hold you back
Till you reap, what you sow.
Free us,
Free us from our shackles,
Free us while we kneel and pray,
We will obey,
Lead us,
Lead us to salvation,
Lead us to the light,
Now that you know where it comes from,
Now you know where it goes,
Till you reap, what you sow,
Now you know where I'm going,
Will you bargain your soul?
Cause you know it will hold you back,
Till you reap, what you sow,
Till you reap, what you sow,
And you'll pay what you owe,
Till you reap, what you sow,
Till you reap, what you sow.
