

Hustler

Keri Hilson

Verse 1

Was I supposed to come so close to loving you
That I couldn't see
Was I supposed to drown myself in thoughts of you
To where I could no longer breathe
You're just a silhouette
Of a perfect man
Cause you take me higher..than I have ever been
Just to break me down..into a thousand pieces
Boy you, make me, wish I...was a hustler

Chorus

So I could move the weight
Off of my shoulders
And I could run away
If I could be a hustler
Then I would move the weight
Off of my shoulders
And I would run away
Away home

Verse 2

Such a waste of my time
You are everything you shouldn't be
And how one seconds introduction
Could become a lifetime of misery
You're just a silhouette
Of a perfect man
Cause you take me higher
Than I have ever been
Just to break me down
Into a thousand pieces
Boy you, make me, wish I ...was a hustler

Ex- Chorus

So I could move the weight
Off of my shoulders
And I could run away
If I could be a hustler
Then I would move the weight
Off of my shoulders
And I would run away
Away from you
So I could move the weight
If I could be a hustler
And I could run away
From this corner you got me stuck on
And I would move away
Boy you, make me, wish I ...was a hustler
Aye If I could be a hustler

Yeah

Outro

So I could move the weight
And I could run away
Then I would move the weight...
The I would run away...
