

Pages Of My Letters

Keri Noble

This is the last time
I'm gonna write this down
I must admit I've gotten used to you not being around
You were always better
In the pages of my letters

I don't talk to God
the way that I used to
No hard feelings
He's just got more important things to do
Then hear my broken records
And read it in the pages of my letters

You should know that I don't blame you
For breaking it
And not following through
Somewhere I know it's true
That to be with you
Could never measure
To the pages of my letters

Guess that hardest part
Of all of this for me
Is that I was the one
Who built you up to be Completely better
In the pages of my letters

You should know that I don't blame you
For breaking it
And not following through
Somewhere I know it's true
That to be with you
Could never measure
To the pages of my letters

Think you'd want to know
When I didn't know
Where to go
I would imagine what you'd say
Then I'd try to go along your way

I don't blame you
For not following through
Somewhere I know it's true
That to be with you
Could never measure
To the pages of my letters
