

Riders of Innocence

Kerion

cum prima luce when the morning mist covers my land somewhere i n a mystic forest a wonderful glade behind the trees as pure as the water which flows in a river strong, wild and fi erce impossible to tame by man only a virgin with the freshness of the dew sitting against the knowledge stone could catch a delicate unicorn cum prima luce when the moon and sun shine together keepers of dreams and fantasy you run free across hills and mountains riders of innocence, show me your might for the safety of the land let me touch your alicorn riders of innocence, help me to fight the dark forces of evil with the power of your horn
