

Goodbye

Kerli

Sometimes it's hard to get better or cry
I have been writing this letter in my mind
And don't get emotional as beautiful

Listen, I'll tell you a secret
If I should ever feel like old and home
I'd jump so I could fly
I'd be the one with every piece of sand
With every mountain high
Don't tell me I'm wrong
I'd had it break your heart
Cause, that's just the way I feel
Yea, I love it here
But I don't belong here
And, it's been clear
For how I
It will be clear

End of all the fights
From the dark into the light
From the dark into the light
Goodbye
Goodbye
