

Strange Boy

Kerli

You should never leave me home alone Heaven knows where I might wanna go
Everything I do is oh so wrong
That's why you like it

When you ask if you could be my man
I say, thank you honey, come again

Strange boy

You're here

Should have told you 'bout the way I choose
Everything that we are gonna do
Everything that we are going through
Just how you like it

Baby don't you realize
I'm not another foolish sacrifice
Oh no, no, no
You're waiting for the world to pass you by
Living in a state of compromise
No, no, no, no
No, no, no

Strange boy
Innocent
You're here
Magnificent
