

Yes I Can

Kerli

It's time for revolution
Time for personality
Instead of perfect as can we
Embrace creativity
Train wrecks are so last season
Can we just be happy
When they do nothing but put you down
And they just get up and leave
They're going

No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
I will show that I can
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
I will show that I can

It's time for revolution
Time to gain some self respect
You do not know how to love
Until you learn to love yourself
(If If If)
You can dream it You can do it
Do not let it go
There's always someone out there
Who will think that you don't know
They're going

No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
I will show that I can
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
No you can't (Yes I can)
I will show that I can

Let's start a movement of love and creativity
Let's start a movement of being all that we can be
Let's start a movement the world can not ignore to see
Unlimited power, unlimited divinity
Let's start a revolution
Let's start a revolution
It's time for evolution
I know I'm not alone
Let's start a revolution
Let's start a revolution
Let's start a revolution
And screw the ones we don't

No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
We will show you that we can
No you can't (Yes we can)

No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
We will show you that we can

No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
We will show you that we can
No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
No you can't (Yes we can)
We will show you that we can
