

Middle of It All

Kerrie Roberts

I want to be the one who stands in the fray
I want to take a chance so I can say
I'm coming through, gonna get my hands dirty
On the journey here with You

I want to remember those forgotten by the world
I want to be the words for those unheard
And I'll follow You into the hardest places
When I'm afraid, I'll trust You
I'm afraid, but I'll trust You

So I will run into the middle of it all
And I will come when my heart hears Your call
No, I won't hide behind the safety of the city walls
I'll step outside the lines and rise above predictable
I will run into the middle of, the middle of it all

And You're here
Lord, I know that I'm not alone
And You're there before me anywhere I go
That's why I want to fearlessly live and love You
You're the reason why I move

So I will run into the middle of it all
And I will come when my heart hears Your call
No, I won't hide behind the safety of the city walls
I'll step outside the lines and rise above predictable
I will run into the middle of, the middle of it all

Across the distance and right across the street
Whatever You decide to put within my reach
I will go, make me ready

So I will run into the middle of it all
And I will come when my heart hears Your call
No, I won't hide behind the safety of the city walls
I'll step outside the lines and rise above predictable
I will run into the middle of, the middle of it all
The middle of it all
