Together

Keshia Chanté

Oh ya Alright U know im down And im there for you I know you got my back And I gotchu too And theres something you should know Lets do it together See im your bonnie And you're my clyde Im always gonna be here by your side And theres something you should know Lets do it together I know we don't always See eye to eye Cause you be looking one way And so am I We got an understandin And that's just how it is No matter what tha problem Were still makin ends Baby u know Im loving all this time with you Aint letting you go I don't wanna lose a good thing Not to young to see That true love comes once in a lifetime So come with me We can do this together I told you from the get go Im down to ride Aint no looking backwards We'd be one for life Love can be so demandin Its all in the game But as long as were together We'll make it through the rain, ya Cause u know im there for you No one can love you better

No one can love you better All the things that we've been through No one can take ya place You and I against the world Lets make it last forever You're the only one for me U wantchu I need u I love u

U know im down And im there for you I know you got my back And I gotchu too And theres something you should know Lets do it together See im your bonnie And you're my clyde Im always gonna be here by your side And theres something you should know Lets do it together
