

Eleanor's Cake Which Ate Her

Kevin Ayers

My oh my oh my
Do you really have to cry?
Crying like a summer rain
Lady let me ease your pain.
Why oh why oh why
Don't you spread your wings and fly?
Flying like an autumn wind
Lady did you lose a friend?

Don't be sad and down
Take another look around
Maybe what you've lost you've found.

Don't be sad and down
Take another look around
Maybe what you've lost you've found
