

Write Your Story Now

Kevin Devine

I'm running out of things to say to you
"This always takes so long"
Is what you said before you said "So long"

This kind of wordplay gets you ostracized
But if you operate inside these perfect lines
You'll be fine

Now I'm running out faster
Than I ever have before
And I'm seeing double
And everywhere I turn my head
Things look like you again
