

Backed Out On The

Kevin Drew

You thought you were leaving temporary grieving
You backed out on the cocks
you backed out on the cocks

if they wanna love you make sure they fuck you
You backed out on the cocks
you backed out on the cocks

you think it's the season temporary treason
You backed out on the cocks

they wanna hunt you make sure they love/want to
You backed out on the cocks
you backed out on the cocks

everyone can write this song but they can't write you and me oh, everyone can write this song
but they can't write you and me

If the lies they dont' fit ya better trade some spit ya,
You backed out on the cocks
you backed out on the cocks

time is a leaver thought she was a stealer
You backed out on the cocks
you backed out on the cocks

Everyone can write this song
but they can't write you and me
they can't write you and me
