

cats and crafts put you in a tiny box that's filled with our victims who can't explain how they love their moms and all the hands that retreat they try to slip right down their pussy but theres nothing that you thought is wrong but you are too beautiful to fuck you're too beautiful

you are too beautiful to fuck
you're too beautiful

slice my eyes took me through another night that goes all night through tries to seize what their hearts have lost my best friend took me in and laid me down beside my own sin and I said "can you please forgive the love?"

you're too beautiful
you're too beautiful
