

All The Tequila In Tijuana

Kevin Fowler

I can't even lie, I won't even try
To tell you that I'm a perfect man
Cause in the past I've been known to tie one on
When I go out with my friends
But lately all this drinkin's been bringing me down
Been looking for salvation but all I've found is that

Chorus:

All the tequila in Tijuana
Won't help me feel any stronger
I know it won't help but I'm gonna try
Goin down to Mexico and drinkin em dry
Here I go

Well I aint gone a day since you gone away
Without drinkin a few and blaming it on you
Couldn't lie to myself or to anyone else
And say that I'm doin fine
Another shot of courage can't drink you off my mind
Is there a message in this bottle that I can't find cause

Chorus X2

All the tequila in Tijuana
It's bringin me down
Got me feeling like I'm gonna die
Yeah it's bringin me down
Got me feeling like I'm gonna die
Oh it's bringin me down
Got me feeling like I'm gonna die
