

Slow Down

Kevin Fowler

early every morning up and out bed a thousand things runnin through my head thinkin bout all the stuff i gotta get done 8 to 5 then back home take out the trash mow the lawn i work and work sill ive seen no fun

to the bank cash that check pick up the car that my wife wrecked workin over time just trying to make his meat drop off the dog pick up the kids my blood pressures gone and all im gonna get is crazy crazy life i lead

yeah im caught up in this damn rat race this treadmill life wont slow its pace im like a dog chasing my tail wind it right back in the same old place

you know i gotta slow down ive gotta slow down
