

Best Part

Kevin McCall

Wuchu wanna do?
Girl, 'cause we can argue all damn night (all this thumble)
You got a attitude, babe when you say
When the fuck did I say I make you a surprise? (did someone rumble?)

'Cause every fuckin' night and every fuckin' day
Bringin' up some more chin and throwin' it in my face
Every time I turn around you say you're through with it
I've been telling you I'm cool with it

'Cause the best part of breaking up
Is making love and making love
Speaking of love, better wish she makes up
Oh oh, all night long

Breaking up is the best part
When we start tripping instead of making love
Baby, that's when the sex starts
So good (so good), so good (so good), so good (so good), you're so good

First she be calling out my name
Then I hear her screaming out my name
Out my name, out my name
Not too loud you gon make her say
I put that on everything
I'm about to buy you a wedding ring
Sex with you is the greatest
We should be making some babies

Damn, why you always talking about leaving in the gray?
Sometime I fail 'bout you like a breaker
Just to make her say you stopped pay for the race
And a never dilemma is when I'm doing you good
It's like you never remember
If you stop bitching I know just where to kiss ya
Say you're leaving but there's no problema

'Cause the best part of breaking up
Is making love and making love
Speaking of love, better wish she makes up
Oh oh, all night long

Breaking up is the best part
When we start tripping instead of making love
Baby, that's when the sex starts
So good (so good), so good (so good), so good (so good), you're so good

Breaking up is the best part
When we start tripping instead of making love
Baby, that's when the sex starts
So good (so good), so good (so good), so good (so good), you're so good

Breaking up is the best part
When we start tripping instead of making love
Baby, that's when the sex starts
So good (so good), so good (so good), so good (so good), you're so good
