I'm not the best at showing my emotions
You cut me deep and you left me wide open
I fought the demons that lie in between us
They'd think we're perfect if they'd ever seen us, but
I guess this sounds like another sad love song
I can't get over how it all went wrong
But, I let the words come together
Then, maybe I'll feel better

Bridges they are burning
Lover, I am worried
Tables they are turning
Lover, I am hurting
Burning burning burning, dadadadad
Turning turning turning turning, dadadadad
Burning burning burning, dadadadad
Turning turning turning, dadadadada

I took the time to think of what you said
You were tap-dancing in my head
I must be honest, I have a lot of pride
But I'm broken inside
I guess this sounds like another sad love song
I can't get over how it all went wrong
But, I let the words come together
Then, maybe I'll feel better

Bridges they are burning Lover, I am worried Tables they are turning Lover, I am hurting Bridges they are burning Lover, I am worried Tables they are turning Lover, I am hurting Burning burning, dadadadada Turning turning turning, dadadadada Bridges they are burning Lover, I am worried Tables they are turning Lover, I am hurting Bridges they are burning Lover, I am worried Tables they are turning Lover, I am hurting
