

That Reason

Khoiba

I know the reason why you came to me
It's love
And all we need is
The reason that it talks to you
It's love
It seems to be easy
It seems to be easy
It seems to be easy

That's why I feel so free and high
You feel like nobody lets you down
Get down to visibly higher ground

I know the reason why you long for me
It's love
And all you need is
The reason that it is hurting you
It's love
It seems to be easy
It seems to be easy
It seems to be easy

I know the reason why you came to me
It's love
And all we need is
The reason that it talks to you
It's love
It seems to be easy

That's why I feel so free and high
You feel like nobody lets you down
Get down to visibly higher ground
