

Greed

Kiana

Inhale this greedy, filthy air
Feed your fears of unbounded nature

Now, self-destruction seems to be our aim
Self-destruction, "All for one and all for me"

Fall from grace with me
Embrace the misery
No shelter to the broken

Strain, steal
Make your earth disappear

Now, self-destruction seems to be on our way
Self-destruction, "All for one and all for me"

Inhale this greedy, filthy air
Fill your lungs with death
Exhale this greedy, filthy air
...once more
