

Heartburn

Kiana

No longer I will try,
keep you outside, out off my mind
Welcome, my sweetest darkness

Corrosion in my heart
Darkness within unveils the scars
Fuck how it burns inside

Alone I go through this all
I embrace the silence
Still ready to lose it all, it all...

Emotions take hold on me and crave my heart out There's nothing else left in me only this never-ending pain

This is my last goodbye to you
I feel like dying

Despair, hold me
Give me a reason to believe In love once lost, in dreams they only burn to dust
