

face the truth so harsh it' ll take you to your knees cause of the choices you' ve made nowhere to hide and nowhere to run and now you can' t turn back why don' t you face the facts? it will come back at last no one fkin' wins in the end caught up by your act it knocks you off your feet cause you' re in too deep

as fear makes your brain go numb bumrush - will you fall or will you stand bumrush - and stay true till the end ?
