

All Along

Kid Cudi

When the days change
So does my attitude
I'm messy at home
I eat a lot of junk food
when the nights change
So do my nightmares too
I dream reality is my dream

All along all along I guess I'm meant to be alone
All along all along I guess I'm meant to be alone
Out there on my own, yeah

When the weeks change the rumors change too
I'm addicted to highs, would you like to know why
When the months change so do my love point of views
I don't want what I need, what I need hates me what I need hates me

I know all along all along
I know I'm meant to be alone
It's crazy but all along all along
I knew I was meant to be alone
Out there on my own, yeah

Suppose somehow the lion-hearted failed to win
Who will be the villain or the strangers waiting for him
Suppose somehow the lion-hearted failed to smile
who will be the villain or the strangers waiting for him

All along all along I guess I'm meant to be alone
All along all along I guess I'm meant to be alone
Out there on my own, yeah
