

The Mirror

Kid Rock

I been known to fight the good fight
I been known to walk alone
I been known to stay out all night
Drinkin' wine and gettin' stoned

I feel like you're not ever gonna let me love you
I feel like I'm gonna be left here on my own
I feel like I'm not ever gonna rise above you
I feel like we will always walk alone

I was born into the good life
I have owned a wretched soul
I was thrown into the dark night
Where I roamed with no control

I feel like you're not ever gonna let me love you
I feel like I'm gonna have to face this on my own
I feel like I'm not ever gonna rise above you
I feel like we will always walk alone

I feel like you're not ever gonna let me love you
I feel like I'm gonna be left here on my own
I feel like I'm not ever gonna rise above you
I feel like we will always walk alone
