Maybe Tomorrow

Get up early You're still late And still coming down from yesterday I've seen enough to see this far And I wanna fail you all Soldiered on into the day Wipe your nose, the night still prays Upon your skin and crawls I'll be the prick you call I've got answers no one else will give I live the lives no one will live I've seen it all I've heard it all

Maybe tomorrow brings a song And we'll all sing along Maybe tomorrow Brings a song and we'll all sing along We'll all sing along

Find a cause to celebrate Get your shoes no time to waste (The world won't wait) Don't hesitate I'll meet you by the golden gate I've got answers no one else will give I live the lives no one will live I've seen it all I've heard it all

Maybe tomorrow brings a song And we'll all sing along Maybe tomorrow Brings a song and we'll all sing along We'll all sing along, we'll all sing along, we'll all sing alon q

Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing a long Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing a long Maybe tomorrow brings a song and we'll all sing along Maybe tomorrow brings a song and we'll all sing along Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing a lonq Maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow, maybe tomorrow we'll all sing a long We'll all sing along
