Sad And Guilty Ways

Kids In The Way

This is my final resting place, I'm never gonna let my hands wander free This will be my unchanging phase You're never gonna see my sad and guilty ways again

Time and time I find That my words will never reach you if I can't seem to meet you And I hope that you don't mind But this happy ending is now descending, I apologize for the la st time

I'm standing by my eternal grave, Listening to myself stumble through this eulogy I've laid to rest all of my mistakes You're never gonna see my sad and guilty ways again
