

Hold tight
There's a feeling that we'll be alright
This time
I'm letting go of what I've left behind
Fall back, unwind, relax your mind
Feel the new life
Forget bad days, embrace new ways
Breathe in the new life

How am I supposed to know just how to feel
When will I be seeing my side of the deal

Let go
I know the reason why you're moving slow
Too scared
You don't appreciate what's in your head
Fall back, unwind, relax your mind
Feel the new life
Forget bad days, embrace new ways
Breathe in the new life

How am I supposed to know just how to feel
When will I be seeing my side of the deal
How am I supposed to know just how to feel
When will I be seeing my side of the deal

Take a part of me with every word you never say
Silence is a killer when you've got so much to say
Step into my world and you'll see how I need to change
Let me be my enemy 'cause I need you to help me light the way

When will I be seeing my side of the deal

How am I supposed to know just how to feel
When will I be seeing my side of the deal
How am I supposed to know just how to feel
When will I be seeing my side of the deal
