

This place is overrated, your body blew my mind
I always fall into this temptation through the night
I never wanna do it, it happens everytime
I got no reason for this disaster frame of mind

Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator
Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator

I hate the consequences, they cut into my spine
Working on double vision, running with blinded eyes
No time to contemplate it, no time to realise
I'm getting right back to it, temptation every night

Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator
Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator

Ooh, ooh, yeah
Come my way, be my motivator
Ooh, ooh, yeah

Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator
Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator

Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator
Nice to meet you, might see you later
Come my way, be my motivator
