Kierra Kiki Sheard

People think they when know, man they don't know how you got here, They think they can play your role tryna beat the odds when they start staring out of control You should try to drive on your side of the road you will probably get where you're going faster Come on you can do it use your own brain get it, go get it come on, come on
The world is waiting to hear your ideas
So what you thinking about, I can't hear you now, oh yeah I see, see every big dream that hasn't been born because

Everybody wanna be rich and be famous rocking on the guitar
What if that that that that ain't your lane Jus be you, oh no no, don't be anywhere you know you shudn't be stay in your lane
But that's where you are in your lane, your lane, your lane, your lane

Mister, everybody can't always be what you can see So let that go, move on to be what you wanna be Explanation, you don't owe it to no nobody
They think they can tear you down and kill your heart, noooooo Go get it if you got it, yes you are a star in the making You're gonna be the one everyone looks up to in the dark So what you thinking about, I can't hear you now, oh yeah I see See every big dream that hasn't been born because

Everybody wanna be rich and be famous rocking on the guitar
Jus be you, oh no no, don't be anywhere you know you shudn't be
stay in your lane
But that's where you are in your lane, your lane, your lane, your
lane

Everybody wanna be rich and be famous rocking on the guitar
Just be you, don't be anywhere you know you shudn't be, stay in your lane
But that's where you are in your lane

Everybody wanna be rich and be famous rocking on the guitar
Jus be you, oh no no, don't be anywhere you know you shudn't be
stay in your lane
But that's where you are in your lane, your lane, your lane, your
lane
