

You're the Only One

Kierra Kiki Sheard

I can't believe in myself
Look at all the things I've been through
Hurt, pain, defeat, yes me
Lies, strain, deceit

But I couldn't get through by myself
Yes, I'm tellin' I needed help
Not just ordinary
Something more extraordinary

Supernatural
I'm talking something incredible
I'm needing You Jesus
Right now I'm holding on to You, right now

When I call Your name
And I'm not giving You the praise
I'm needing You Jesus
That's why You're the only one I

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

It doesn't matter what time
I call on You, I know You hear

He never sleeps, He is Always with me

And that's why I feel so complete
Yes, He is the best part of me
There is no comparing
He's out of the ordinary, yeah

Supernatural
I'm talking something incredible
I'm needing You Jesus
Right now I'm holding on to You, right now

When I call Your name
And I'm not giving You the praise
I'm needing You Jesus
That's why You're the only one I

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the only one that, that keeps me

You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

And I know what I believe
It's Your grace that's keeping me, oh yeah
Yes, You're the only one I could never give up
That's why I tell the world You're the one that keeps me

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the only one that, that keeps me
You're the only one that, that loves me
You're the only one I think about
Whenever I need You I scream it loud

You're the one that keeps me in Your loving arms
You would take me from all the harm and danger
Yeah, yeah
