

Innocence

Kilians

There's no need to Compromise
I see it in your eyes
The hours that you cried
It took so long to realize
You are not the one to
Hang around with them
You are not the one to
Hang around with them

There is no innocence no
But where are you?
It's when I tumble and fall
There's nothing to lose
There is no innocence no
But where are you?
It's when I tumble and fall

But when I look you
In the eyes
I see you lost your pride

Once it felt so nice
It took so long to realize
You are not the one to
Hang around with them
You are not the one to
Hang around with them

There is no innocence no
But where are you?
It's when I tumble and fall
There's nothing to lose
There is no innocence no
But where are you?
It's when I tumble and fall

But if you love me so
Why you turn away?
And if you need me so
Why you turn away?
