Kilians

I know you don't mind
but time is on my side it's your pleasure to try and your pleasure to decide

You said I do not look but I can see it anyway,
if you could ever win
I would know how!
But when the girl gets in
I know I'll never die
just being separate instead of being mine

Leave me tonight
When all your fears gone by to control one thing does mean to win all the time
