

You Should Be Thinking Of Me

Kilians

I took my time
But there was nothing I could ever find
Except the curse in my mind
You know that I
Yeah I do better alone
So let me try
Come on, come on, come on
Oh no, can't you see?
Oh No!
It pulls you down, I know
I've got to move, but it's too slow
Ain't got no eyes
'Cause there is nothing to see
Ain't got no rights
While you are punishing me
Oh the night I hear them laughing at me
Yeah in the night i hear them laughing at me

And so, I see it's falling down tonight
And so I put it all aside
The more I do the less you try
But we don't fit at all

Around and 'round
I hardly lied
When I said it was me
It fells apart
And then it came back to me
Oh in the night I hear them laughing at me
Oh in the night I hear them laughing at me

You should be thinking of me as I am thinking of you
