

Berlin After The Bombing

Kill Hannah

All dead boys say
There's no heaven
All this world is a
Berlin after the bombing
They're between little
Angel has gaurds hover around
All you see is a
Berlin after the bombing

At last the dust fall
At last the dust fall
At last the dust fall
At last the dust fall

All boys here
They'll be in all his wings
All this world needs is
Berlin after the bombing
