

Statues Without Eyes

Kill Hannah

Lost, and winter's on the way
And the air is caving in
And the streets are crumbling
But you are with me

Under the downtown city lights
We become statues without eyes
Barely audible
We're frozen in time
I have you where I want you

Oh I need to look away
When the jets are overhead
And the storm is closing in
Yeah something is happening

Beneath the modern cold highrise
We become statues without eyes
Stand at attention
They all align
I have you where I want you

Then it all aligns
It all aligns
I have you where I want you
We are statues without eyes
We were statues without eyes
We are statues without eyes
