

Welcome To Chicago, Motherfucker

Kill Hannah

yeah it's 4 am in a speeding car OD'd on X and G but what are you on?
turn up the radio
turn up the radio
turn up the radio
welcome to chicago, motherfucker
at the top of the sears tower i tongue kissed a coke-fiend at the afterhours
turn up the radio
let's get out of control
i wanna blow shit up

never come down
never come down
never come down
never come down

i ran after you 'cause later i might be dead this jello shot i think went straight to my head this isn't moscow
this isn't tokyo
we are invincible

never come down
never come down
no, never come down
never come down
