

Brake Your Bones

Kill Paradise

Hello Miss,
Do you have the time
I've lost my watch but I have my mind
And while you're watching time go by
I'd like to ask you how it feels to die

Where am I now?
Where are you now?
Counting all your wishes
What a head rush
In the fieldbrush
Fishing for your kisses

(And we all fall so hard, we fall so hard)

So, brake, brake, brake, brake your bones tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine
So, take gold chains
Take that chance tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine

So put 'em up
And scream it loud
And when you're done
Put it on the crowd
'Cause summer comes when it goes
Where she at no one knows
Fix your hair and strike a pose
Glory in it goes

What can I do to make it through?
What can I do to make it through?
What can I do?
What can I do?
What can I do?

(And we all fall so hard, we fall so hard)

So, brake, brake, brake, brake your bones tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine
So, take gold chains
Take that chance tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine

So put 'em up
And scream it loud
And when you're done
Put it on the crowd
'Cause summer comes when it goes
Where she at no one knows
Fix your hair and strike a pose
Glory in it goes

So, brake, brake, brake, brake your bones tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine
So, take gold chains
Take that chance tonight

Trust me if you do you will feel just fine

So put 'em up
And scream it loud
And when you're done
Put it on the crowd
'Cause summer comes when it goes
Where she at no one knows
Fix your hair and strike a pose
Glory in it goes

So, brake, brake, brake, brake your bones tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine
So, take gold chains
Take that chance tonight
Trust me if you do you will feel just fine

So put 'em up
And scream it loud
And when you're done
Put it on the crowd
