Kill the Romance

Blind that you are to stare at the crack in the mirror of your fate
And the nightmare
begins to call you awake Oh the vision on the horizon seem hopeless and pale It's welcoming us into its embrace Deceiving us to take part in this insane game

That is changing all
From inside it's changing all
Ever regression
Forever regression

Pale is the moon and the shadow is blinding our eyes Days turn to night far above dies the star that we are So the glimpse remaining behind Should make us doubt
So it is done
We are to fade

We drift along the stream And bathe in the river 'till we're pure enough to rot
We never got to know what went wrong
We never knew we had to stay until the end of all

It is changing all
From inside it's changing all
Ever regression
Changed us all
From inside it changed us all
Forever regression
Never dissension
Never escape no
Never a fiction Never

Slave you are Deep inside enslaved you are
From the depths of your doom shall you rise like a beast

Stone you are A statue of stone you've become Come fly and face your own reflections paralyzing stare

Save yourself
Flee from yourself Deny the cage you hide in and become the one you fear
