

In Our Holy Grail

Kill the Romance

He's the one who will bless you all He's the one who will save you at the end
Some other day
he would be a superstar Some other day he would in bloody hell

The frightened one of us will hide Behind his stellar omnipotent soul
As out of the same bone we're made of Our aim and goal is to be supreme

We'll be never defeated
Against the enemy we will defend our precious diamond and gold Never ever are we buying
any other superstition
We're standing steady at line
We're not shaking nor lying
We shall not fall

In our holy grail denial is repressed And among us consecrated by the light perfection lies

We can kill but light still shines on freeing us from the duties and mundane
In our vanity lies our beast Should we know it or should we just ignore

Someone told us hypocrisy glows
And that we should really be part of it
The son, the father and we as one Would you believe we're in a book we're in a song

We'll be never defeated
Against the enemy we will defend our precious fire and debris Never ever are we buying
any other superstition
We're standing steady at line
We're not shaking nor lying
We shall not fall

From the flames we will arise with an angel pure and white We praise our light divine
And the shine for us now blooms
We will make you realize
We will not be harmed by anyone

We are saved...
