

Inner Cell

Kill the Romance

never been so real thing never been so scared I look ahead but I don't see a thing inside my head there's something from the past my inner cell you wanna see me dead everything is so unreal it's in my bed

I never felt like this I don't need that I close my eyes all I feel is weight and blinding lies that are tearing me apart

I know nothing scares you what a surprise
instead it changes you and the fear remains the same
