Take it all Take my stuff, 'Cause this time, I don't want it to be my fault baby. Now I know, seen enough I've seen enough To know that I've had enough maybe. Now I'm alone, I'm here with me, Got clarity and baby I can see through your bullshit. I wanna be alone with me And all the broken down pieces 'Cause no one can fix it. Take it all Take my stuff 'Cause this time, I don't want it to be my fault baby Now I know, seen enough I've seen enough To know that I know you maybe.
