

Corporate Elect

Killing Joke

Grand Masters pulling strings
Wet dream of a new world order
New feudal blueprints rise
We all got fooled again

It's an add generation
Everyone accepts the re-introduction of slavery
By a corporate elect

Tyrant of mine, dominion of our lives
Condemned to Solomon's mine
We all got fooled again

This is the fight back now
Free speech put to the test by immoral psychopaths
We all got fooled again
