

Lost

Killswitch Engage

It's even louder in the silence
And it's always the same
The darkness always finds me
When I hear your name

It should have been me
And I want you to know
That I hold you in my heart
And I won't let go
Just take away the sorrow
It's too much to bare

Drifting from your memory
I'm lost, lost without your love

Now the time goes by
But the torment remains
If only I could wait
To see your face again
There would be no more regret
For all the things I never said

Drifting from your memory
I'm lost without your love
It's getting harder to face
Another day without you
I'm lost, lost without your love

I wish I was as strong
As you were in the end
But the darkness claims me
And moves forward again

Drifting from your memory
I'm lost without your love
It's getting harder to face
Another day without you
I'm lost without your love

It's getting harder to face
Another day without you, lost
